We are here for you! Please don’t hesitate to ask us for assistance!

This section of EVR2001 meets face-to-face. There is an attendance requirement for this section. If you prefer a version of EVR2001 without on-campus class meetings, you may try to register for any of the following sections if there are any open seats:

- Sections 12827 taught by me and 19923 taught by Dr. Danny Coenen and are 100% asynchronous, meaning all course materials are pre-recorded. There are no live class meetings, and therefore no attendance requirement. These sections do have a course schedule with specific deadlines and due dates, however.

Course Description
Delivered from a systems perspective, an interdisciplinary approach explores contemporary environments that are comprised of both human and non-human elements. Explores physical, chemical, and biological processes to understand pressing environmental challenges and cultural values, attitudes, and norms expressed by individuals and populations around the globe.

Course Overview and Purpose
Environmental Science is an interdisciplinary academic field that integrates physical, biological, and social sciences for the study of environmental systems, processes, constraints, and problems. Throughout history, nature has contributed to shaping human cultures. In turn, a growing human population and continued economic and technological development subjects Earth's environments to many stresses, in some cases threatening their persistence and often resulting in undesirable consequences for humanity. The interdependence of physical, biological, socioeconomic, and cultural aspects in shaping contemporary environments lies at the heart of environmental science.

This general education course will introduce you to environmental science as an academic field to improve your environmental literacy while developing skills in scientific reasoning, interdisciplinary thinking and analysis of complex social-ecological issues. Heavy emphasis is placed on comparing international perspectives on environmental problems and solutions to highlight the important role of culture in environmental matters.

Required Textbook

Required Technology
You need to have access to a personal computer or laptop with a working webcam and microphone in order to access all features of the course Canvas site, and to participate in online office hours. Broadband internet access is required. Proctoring services are provided by Honorlock. You are expected to review the Honorlock system requirements and use their compatibility tool before the end of the drop/add period by visiting https://honorlock.com/support/ and scrolling down to the Simple Single-Click Test section of that page. The student guide to testing with Honorlock can be accessed via https://static.honorlock.com/assets/2017/students/HonorlockGuidelines.pdf. If you do not wish to install Honorlock on your computer you may reserve proctoring booths at Library West instead. See https://librarywest.uflib.ufl.edu/spaces/study-spaces-in-library-west/proctored-online-testing-booths/.

General Education Objectives and Student Learning Outcomes
This course is a physical (P)/biological (B) sciences as well as International (N) subject area course in the UF and Florida State Core General Education Programs. The general education objectives will be accomplished in the context of this course through the following course objectives:

1) Students will be able to describe the process of scientific inquiry and apply scientific principles in cross-cultural and interdisciplinary contexts.

2) Students will be able to explain that ecosystems are comprised of physical and biological elements whose interactions engender ecosystem functions that provide humanity with a diverse array of ecological services.

3) Students will be able to discuss the complex and diverse relationships between humans and environments from local to global scales, including how cultural values shape patterns of resource use and valuation of ecological services.

4) Students will be able to differentiate between non-renewable, exhaustible, and inexhaustible material and energy resources, the physical and biological processes through which they are created, and associated environmental constraints.

5) Students will be able to apply interdisciplinary approaches to evaluating and proposing solutions for U.S. and international environmental problems, taking into account scientific and socioeconomic information, including cultural and political constraints.

6) Students will gain the ability to appraise environmental impacts of behaviors, choices, and activities in their personal lives.

Module-specific learning objectives are included in each lecture presentation, available through Canvas.

Course Structure
EVR2001 consists of 11 modules, each dedicated to an environmental topic. In general, you will move through each of these modules in the following sequence:

1. Complete assigned readings for important background information and context
2. Apply what you have learned in the readings by completing a module preparation assignment
3. Attend live lectures during class, where the read material is placed into context and expanded upon
4. Reflect on the module’s content through engaging in discussions and activities with fellow students in small groups

Grading Policies

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points can be found at https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/. A minimum grade of C is required for general education credit.

Grade cutoffs are exact; you should not expect any rounding of scores at the end of the semester.

Syllabus and Anti-plagiarism Quiz: There will be a quiz during the first week of the semester to ensure that you understand important rules specified in this syllabus and are able to identify proper methods of citation. This quiz will be on Canvas and may be retaken an unlimited number of times up to the deadline until you are satisfied with your score.

Class Attendance and Activities: Students significantly contribute to creating a comfortable and productive learning environment by attending and participating productively in class. I encourage questions and sharing of relevant experiences! Grades are based on attendance, in-class activities, and frequency and quality of student contributions to the class.

Module Preparation Assignments: In preparation for modules 2-11, you will complete readings and respond to questions that reinforce the read material. These assignments include free response questions, completing worksheets, and visiting local parks and conservation areas. Emphasis will be placed on applying scientific reasoning skills, such as formulating hypotheses and interpreting data. These assignments are graded through rubrics that are posted along the assignment instructions on Canvas. Citations and references are required in APA format unless otherwise stated in an assignment’s instructions. Direct quoting of sources is not allowed. A Turnitin.com score of less than 10% is expected for free response questions.
International Environmental Issue Essay: You will watch a documentary film about an environmental issue outside the United States, and reflect on the causes, impacts, and possible solutions of the issue in the form of an 800-1000-word essay. This assignment is graded through a rubric that is posted along the assignment instructions on Canvas. Citations and references are required in APA format. Direct quoting of sources is not allowed. A Turnitin.com score of less than 10% is expected.

Quizzes: There will be five online multiple-choice quizzes to assess if students are keeping up with and understanding course materials. These quizzes must be submitted by midnight on the due date and may not be retaken. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped. Grading is based on the number of correct answers. Quizzes are proctored by Honorlock.

Exams: There are three 50-minute multiple choice exams during the semester that will assess your comprehension of course content. Grading is based on the number of correct answers. Exams are proctored by Honorlock.

Specific grading criteria for each assignment will be provided on Canvas. You are responsible for maintaining duplicate copies of all work submitted in this course until the end of the semester. In case of a grading dispute, you must notify the instructor via e-mail within one week of the date the grade is posted. It is your responsibility to ensure that all assignments are successfully uploaded to Canvas. Missing, corrupt, or incompatible files may result in grade penalties up to a score of zero for the assignment.

Course Policies

Diversity and Inclusiveness Statement
Diversity is one of our biggest assets in the classroom and in environmental science. Different perspectives enrich our understanding of the variety of human-nature interactions and are imperative to developing just solutions to complex environmental problems. This classroom is a place where you will be treated with respect, and I welcome individuals of all ages, backgrounds, beliefs, ethnicities & races, genders, gender identities, gender expressions, national origins, religions (if any), sexual orientations, ability – and other visible and nonvisible differences. All members of this class are expected to contribute to a respectful, welcoming, and inclusive environment for every other member of the class. This does not mean that you are not allowed to disagree with others, but that such differences should be explored without ad hominem judgment.

Land Acknowledgement Statement
A Land Acknowledgement is a formal statement that recognizes and respects Indigenous Peoples as traditional stewards of this land and the enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous Peoples and their traditional territories. In particular, the University of Florida resides on land of the Timucua people and the Seminole Tribe of Florida. It is important to understand the long-standing history that has brought you to reside on the land, and to seek to understand your place within that history. Land acknowledgements do not exist in a past tense, or historical context; colonialism is a current ongoing process. For more information, visit http://www.lspirg.org/knowtheland

Attendance Policy
Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/. On-time attendance is mandatory. You are permitted three unexcused absences without grade penalty (excepting any in-class activities or extra credit opportunities, which cannot be made up). Additional unexcused absences incur a score of zero for the day’s Class Attendance and Engagement. Point deductions may also be incurred for repeated disruptive tardiness. Missing scheduled quizzes or exams will incur a score of zero unless you can provide evidence that the assessment was missed due to an excusable reason.
Excusable reasons include:
- In case of illness, upon receipt of a doctor's note or equivalent, or by following the procedure outlined here: https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications.
- In case of religious holidays, by informing me via e-mail ahead of time.
- In case of military duty, jury duty, participation in academic conferences, or participation in official university or UAA events, by providing appropriate evidence ahead of time.
- In case of family emergencies or other extenuating circumstances, by following the procedure outlined here: https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications.
- In all other cases, or if you are unsure, please e-mail me as soon as feasible. Absences are generally not excused for non-emergency travel and vehicle problems.

You are still responsible for turning assignments in on time unless an extension has been requested via e-mail and approved by the instructor prior to the deadline. In case of true documented emergencies, the instructor may waive this requirement.

Make-up Policy
Quizzes and exams missed for excused reasons can be made up. For absences excused ahead of time, I will develop a make-up plan and schedule. In case of documented illnesses or emergencies, arrangements for completing make-up exams or assignments should be made upon return to class. If experiencing truly extenuating circumstances resulting in longer absences, please notify me as soon as possible to develop a plan to make up missed work. In-class activities cannot be made up, but will be excused if documentation justifying an excused absence is provided. Missed extra credit opportunities cannot be made up. If you miss a quiz due to a non-excusable reason, it will be considered your lowest-scoring quiz and thus dropped from your final grade. If you miss an exam for a non-excusable reason, a score of zero will be entered.

Late Work
You are responsible for turning assignments in on time unless an extension has been requested via e-mail prior to the deadline. In case of true documented emergencies, I may waive this requirement. Technical difficulties are not generally an excuse for missing an assessment or assignment; you should have contingency plans in case any such issues arise. I recommend storing your documents on a cloud service that can be accessed from any device (Dropbox and OneDrive are free to UF students), and having a plan for internet outages (such as identifying a source for public WiFi near you or tethering through your cell phone). Try not to wait until the last minute to submit assignments!

- For module preparation assignments and the international environmental issue essay, late submissions will incur a penalty of 20% per day. A day is defined as 24 hours from the due date and time. Submissions more than three days late will receive a grade of zero. No other work will be accepted late.

I highly recommend starting work on assignments early to preclude unexpected emergencies or late-semester stress from compromising your grade. Deadline extensions may be available on certain assignments if requested ahead of time via e-mail, but must be justified. If extended deadlines are not met, late penalties will be assessed based on the original, not the revised due date!

Finally, please do not wait until the end of the semester to discuss problems with the course material or performance in class. Your performance and success are important to the instructor, the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, and University of Florida, so please contact the instructor to discuss your concerns as soon as they arise.

Office Hours
Please take advantage of office hours to discuss any questions or concerns. Contact your teaching assistant for basic questions, help with assignments, and clarifications regarding grades and feedback. Contact me regarding absences, grading disputes, concerns about other students, and any other issues. If you cannot be present for the regularly scheduled office hours, we will attempt to accommodate you at an alternate time.

Course Communications and Technology
The preferred way to get ahold of me or your TA outside of class and office hours is via Canvas message or UF e-mail. Emails from outside providers, like Gmail, are not considered secure and will be ignored to protect student privacy. University policy dictates that grades cannot be discussed via email, so if you have a grade-specific question, you should ask it in person or via Canvas message.

For all communications, you can expect a response within 24 hours on weekdays. All students are expected to check the course web site on Canvas (http://elearning.ufl.edu) on a daily basis. In addition, we may send specific communications directly to your UF, which you should check daily as well. You should enable Canvas notifications for this class, so that you are notified immediately about grading, assignment feedback, due date changes, announcements, etc.

Note that there are specific due dates and times for assignments, activities, presentations, quizzes and exams, meaning that you will need to stay on track and complete assigned work on schedule to do well in this class.

External Communication
You are encouraged to use GroupMe or similar tools to communicate with other students about the class and environmental science-related topics. You may not, however, discuss quiz and exam questions/answers with others, or collaborate on any assignments intended to be worked on individually.

Canvas Display Name Change
Canvas uses the "Display Name" as set in myUFL. The Display Name is what you want people to see in the UF Directory, such as "Ally" instead of "Allison." To update your display name, go to one.ufl.edu, click on the dropdown at the top right, and select "Directory Profile." Click "Edit" on the right of the name panel, uncheck "Use my legal name" under "Display Name," update how you wish your name to be displayed, and click "Submit" at the bottom. This change may take up to 24 hours to appear in Canvas. This does not change your legal name for official UF records.

University of Florida Policies

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism
As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity." You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sscr/process/student-conduct-honor-code.

As your instructor, I want to emphasize that PLAGIARISM, WHETHER INTENTIONAL OR UNINTENTIONAL, IS A SERIOUS AND POTENTIALLY CAREER-ENDING FORM OF ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT. Copying and pasting is never okay in academia. Direct quotes are not used in science writing; paraphrases accompanied by a proper citation are used instead. Use of direct quotes of outside sources in this class will result in a loss of credit.

Grades and Grade Points
For information on current UF policies for assigning grade points, see https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/

Zoom Conference Privacy
Should it become necessary or convenient to hold classes virtually using zoom, those class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. Unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

In-Class Recording
Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor. A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session. Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Software Use
All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Services for Students with Disabilities
The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations. The DRC may be contacted by visiting 001 Reid Hall, calling 352-392-8565, or visiting their web site at https://disability.ufl.edu.

Student Complaints

Course Evaluation
Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://uflbluera.com/ufl/.
Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/publicresults/.

Campus Helping Resources

Your wellbeing is important to me and the University of Florida community. Students experiencing crises or personal problems that interfere with their general well-being are encouraged to utilize the university's counseling resources. The Counseling & Wellness Center provides confidential counseling services at no cost for currently enrolled students. Resources are available on campus for students having personal problems or lacking clear career or academic goals, which interfere with their academic performance.

Course Alterations

Unforeseen circumstances may make it necessary to alter the information given in this syllabus during the semester. Such changes are not unusual and should be expected. All changes to the syllabus will be announced in class and posted to Canvas. It is your responsibility to keep up with any syllabus changes.
